

TODD HERZOG

Todd Herzog is an artist who takes the raw material of life experiences and creates soulful, spiritual, acoustic pop music along the lines of John Mayer, Jason Mraz and Marc Cohn. His mission is to use music to open the hearts of his listeners to love, wisdom and spirituality.

The music industry has taken notice of Todd's talents. He has worked with some of the top songwriters and artists in the world, including Burt Bacharach, Tonio K, Dave Koz and Michael Lington. Todd's Bridging The Gap CD won the award for "Best Jewish Album" in the Just Plain Folks Music Awards; and PJ Library has distributed his children's album, Everyday Blessings, nationwide.

Todd is the creator of the Desert Gathering Jewish Music Fest, an annual Phoenix cultural event that brings the Jewish and secular communities together to celebrate in song. He has performed at URJ Biennials, CAJE conferences, Hava Nashira, Unity and New Thought churches and various other spiritual and secular venues.

As an instructor at Songleader Boot Camp alongside fellow Jewish educator/performers Rick Recht and Sheldon Low and as an Artist-in-Residence for Vocal Music at the JCC Maccabi ArtsFest, Todd has inspired many budding Jewish musicians and helped them web: www.todderzog.com      email: voxart@todderzog.com      phone: 602-910-7472 gain confidence in their musical journeys. He performs at camps, synagogues, Jewish Community Centers and festivals around the country captivating audiences of all ages and helping them blur the lines between religion and spirituality through music.